On The Record: Far West Dealers Turn Down Merger with WEDA

In today's newscast, we discuss why members of the Far West Equipment Dealers Assn. voted against merging with the Western Equipment Dealers Assn., what dealers should be looking for in the next generation of precision farming specialists, the highest reading of producer sentiment since October 2015 on Purdue University's Ag Economy Barometer and how exports of U.S. made ag equipment fared through the first 9 months of the year.

On The Record is brought to you by AgDirect (<https://www.agdirect.com/>).

Built for agriculture and powered by Farm Credit, AgDirect serves the ag equipment financing needs of equipment dealers across most areas of the U.S. It's among the fastest-growing equipment financing programs of its kind – offering equipment dealers and manufacturers

Dealership of the Year 2016: Van Wall Equipment

In Little League, coaches tell young players to “keep your eye on the ball.” The advice applies to both fielding and batting, but it is just as applicable to running a successful farm equipment dealership. That’s just what Don Van Houweling, owner of the 2016 Dealership of the Year, has done at Van Wall Equipment.
